

Mackensie Jimison

Mackensie has been involved in golf for over 22 years, beginning with a successful high school career that led to playing collegiate golf on scholarship. Most recently she was the Program Director of the First Tee Tennessee – Knoxville for three years and previously she was the USGA Boatwright intern for the Arizona Women’s Golf Association. She has been an Assistant Pro at various courses in Arizona and North Carolina, including Palm Valley Golf Course, and Trillium Lake and Links Club and as the Pro Shop Manager at Champion Hills. She has been teaching golf for 5+ years using her experience and knowledge as a competitive player and a coach.

“Teaching golf has always been my true passion, I love helping someone improve and to see their success. I am always looking for ways to help my students achieve their goals, learn, and enjoy the game of golf.”
